

Index

- abortion, 13, 295n4
Ackerman, Bruce, 7, 61, 102, 158–179 adaptation, hedonic, 4, 25–32, 224, 235 aggregation, 8, 207–221, 261–263
Americans with Disabilities Act, 22, 23, 30, 268 animals, 35–36
arguments against utilitarianism:
 aggregation, 207–221; denial of liberty, 220; distribution of welfare, 203–204; forcible transplantation, 58–59, 249; inefficient utility converters, 48–54; separateness of persons, 273–274n10; unfair in distributing life, 222–238; unfair to disabled in general, 41–54; utility monster, 18–19, 87–88
Arneson, Richard, 75, 76, 190
Arrow, Kenneth, 139

Bentham, Jeremy, 14, 195, 221
Bickenbach, Jerome, 41
Brickman, Philip, 26–27
Brighouse, Harry, 281n1

Brock, Dan, 256, 258–259
Broome, John, 246, 256

Clinton, Bill, 73
Cohen, G. A., 5, 7, 23, 75, 76, 182–184 cost-benefit analysis, as distinct from utilitarianism, 35, 269
Cummins, Robert, 31–32

DALY (disability-adjusted life year), 246 Daniels, Norman, 7, 184–186
deafness, effect on welfare, 24–25
Decker, Susan, 27–28 democracy, 217–218 depression: effect on benefit from resources, 45–46; effect on welfare, 30–31 Dijkers, Marcel, 25 diminishing marginal utility, 39, 127, 197, 201–204, 245–246, 266, 278n13 disability: defined, 4, 23; effect on benefit from resources, 37–54; effect on welfare, 23–32

- disability activists, 37, 163–165 disability-adjusted life year (DALY), 246 distribution of life, 8–9, 222–265 distribution of life, criteria for: age, 244–249, 253–256; auction, 261; imminence of death, 250–255; life expectancy, 225, 238–265; poverty, 260–261; QALY-maximization, 225–238; random, 256–259; waiting time, 252–255 distribution of welfare, 203–204 Dworkin, Ronald, 3, 5, 7, 23, 64, 69, 102–104, 115, 119–157, 165, 186 economic egalitarianism, 10, 266 egalitarianism. See economic egalitarianism; equal respect; marginal egalitarianism; resource egalitarianism; welfare egalitarianism Elster, Jon, 41, 274n4 equal respect, 10, 157, 190, 264–265, 273–274n10, 292n39 ethical pluralism, 181, 184, 189, 274n1 expensive tastes, analysis similar to happy disabled, 280–281n22

 Fleurbaey, Marc, 41, 146
 Foster, James, 44
 Frederick, Shane, 26, 29

 Goodin, Robert, 274n5
 Gottlieb, Roger, 232 greatest happiness of greatest number, 220–221
 Griffin, James, 204–205, 221

 Hardin, Russell, 274–275n9
 Hare, R. M., 137, 190–191, 274–275n9, 292n39
 Harris, John, 233–235, 247, 256–258
 Harsanyi, John, 7, 34, 104, 119, 133–134 hedonic adaptation. See adaptation, hedonic hedonic intuition. See intuition, moral and hedonic

 Individuals With Disabilities Education Act, 51, 268 infanticide, 295n4 insurance, 39, 40, 70, 260 insurance, hypothetical. See Dworkin, Ronald insurance, national health. See national health insurance intellectual disability, effect on welfare, 30–31 international application of theories, 35–37 international food stamp plan, 36 interpersonal comparisons, 3–4, 14–22, 34, 39, 74–75, 89–90, 135–139, 192–206, 224–225 intuition, moral and hedonic, 11–22, 73–74, 211–215

 Kagan, Shelly, 281n32
 Kamm, F. M., 245, 247, 298n44
 Karloff, Dr. Boris, 59, 249
 Kittay, Eva Feder, 117
 Kuhse, Helga, 225, 295n4
 Kymlicka, Will, 273n10

 Lane, Robert, 78
 leveling down, 57–59, 80, 279n3 liberty, relation to utilitarianism, 8, 216–220

- life-saving medical resources. See
 distribution of life
- Lockwood, Michael, 247
- Loewenstein, George, 26, 29
- marginal egalitarianism, 92–94, 201–203, 256–257
- maximin rule, 96, 106, 114, 123–126, 131–132, 134, 218–219
- McKerlie, Dennis, 297n34
- Mckie, John, 225
- multiple sclerosis, effect on welfare, 29–30
- Nagel, Thomas, 97–99, 191
- Narveson, Jan, 154
- national health insurance, 38–39, 69–71, 91, 267
- Ng, Yew-Kwang, 204
- Norcross, Alastair, 213–214
- Nord, Erik, 281n26
- Nozick, Robert, 3, 18–19, 270–271
- Nussbaum, Martha, 7, 187–189
- opportunity: and resource egalitarianism, 65; and welfare egalitarianism, 76
- oppression of minorities, 220
- Parfit, Derek, 190
- partiality, 35–37, 99–101
- Perlman, Itzhak, 90
- Prinz, Steven, 278–279n26
- prioritarianism, 7–8, 18–19, 60–61, 181, 189–206, 218
- QALY (quality-adjusted life year), 9, 225–238, 246, 248–249, 252
- Rae, Douglas, 92
- Rawls, John: critique of utilitarianism, 220; decision making in original position, 130–133;
 difference principle, 66, 69, 79, 104–108, 111–113, 117, 218; illiberal aspects of theory, 218–219; public reason, 219; reflective equilibrium, 299n5; treatment of disabled, 102–118
- resource egalitarianism: defined,
 5–6, 59; and distribution of life, 259–261; and efficiency, 72–73;
 maximally demanding version, 99–101; and opportunity, 65; and small-scale triage, 96, 260; time dimension, 64, 66–68; and treatment of disabled, 63–75
- Richardson, Jeff, 225
- Roemer, John, 145–146
- Ross, W. D., 274n1
- Scanlon, T. M., 41, 97, 198–201, 209–210, 212–213
- Scarre, Geoffrey, 221
- Schulz, Richard, 27–28
- Scrooge, 89–90
- Sen, Amartya: approach distinguished from Nussbaum's, 187; author's churlishness toward, 278n16; compared to Daniels, 184, 186; critique of Rawls, 107, 116; critique of utilitarianism, 3–4, 41–45, 48;
 on egalitarian aspect of contemporary theories, 10; incorporation of utilitarian elements,
 3, 181–182; as welfare egalitarian, 5, 7, 75–76
- separateness of persons, 273–274n10
- Seuss, Dr., 271
- Shapiro, Ian, 6

- Shapiro, Joseph, 163
- Shaw, William, 204, 221
- Sidgwick, Henry, 14, 195, 198, 203
- Singer, Peter: ability to motivate utilitarian behavior, 272; application of theory across nations and species, 35; on distribution of life, 9, 225–238; earthquake example, 95–101, 191–198, 206; and greater-benefit criterion, 34; on infanticide, 295n4; on Nussbaum, 188; on prioritarianism, 191
- special education, 40, 51–53, 189
- spinal cord injury, effect on welfare, 25–29
- strains of commitment, 97–99
- Sumner, L. W., 297n28
- Temkin, Larry, 57
- Thidwick, the Big-Hearted Moose, 271
- Thomson, Judith, 13
- Tiny Tim, 89–90
- transplantation, distributive criteria in United States, 241–242, 251–253, 261–262
- transplantation, forcible, 57–59, 150–151, 249
- Tuck, Richard, 217, 219
- United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS), 241–242, 262, 296n20
- universal medical coverage. See national health insurance
- UNOS (United Network for Organ Sharing), 241–242, 262, 296n20
- utilitarianism: application across nations and species, 35–36; defined, 6, 33; and distribution of life, 222–265; as friend of liberty, 216–220; hedonic or preference account, 14–16; life satisfaction account, 156, 246, 254; maximally demanding version, 99–101; and redistribution to poor, 10, 72–73, 266–267; treatment of disabled, 37–54. See also arguments against utilitarianism
- utility monster: and utilitarianism, 3, 18–19, 21, 271; and welfare egalitarianism, 87–88
- Van Parijs, Philippe, 158, 177–179
- Varian, Hal, 143
- Veatch, Robert, 242, 247, 261,
- Vickrey, William, 133–134
- von Neumann-Morgenstern utility, 127–128
- Wasserman, David, 144, 286n48
- wealth maximization, as distinct from utilitarianism, 35, 269
- welfare: hedonic or preference account, 14–16, 31, 78, 156; life satisfaction account, 41, 82–83, 86, 156, 246, 254
- welfare egalitarianism: defined, 5–6, 59; and the happy disabled, 89–90; incorporation of utilitarian elements, 180–206; maximally demanding version, 99–101; and opportunity, 76; time dimension, 83; treatment of disabled, 75–91; as true home of utility monster, 87