

UNC
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Online Spanish Course for Health Professionals

- Improve your Spanish language skills and awareness of Latino culture
- Learn through engaging DVD drama with interactive exercises
- Earn continuing education (CE) credit

The Office of Continuing Education at the UNC School of Public Health is pleased to offer "Spanish for Health Professionals-Part I".

The primary focus of this innovative online course is improving oral communication skills and promoting cultural awareness of the Latino immigrant community, so health professionals can better communicate with their patients and clients.

The course covers four units of the specially designed ¡A su salud! Spanish for Health Professionals course materials developed at UNC and published by Yale University Press. Part I covers Units 1a, 1b, 2a, and 2b.

Who should take this course? The course is designed for intermediate Spanish speakers in the health professions (e.g., physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, dentists, pharmacists, social workers, physical therapists, health educators, nutritionists, EMS, etc.).

What are the course dates? Two sessions are being offered this year:

Spanish for Health Professionals-Part I: March 1-June 9, 2006

Application deadline: February 8, 2006

Early-bird discount deadline: February 1, 2006

Spanish for Health Professionals-Part I: September 6-December 15, 2006

Application deadline: August 16, 2006

Early-bird discount deadline: August 9, 2006

How do I apply? Complete the following steps by the application deadline:

1. Run the Computer Technical Specifications Check and enter the results on the application form;
2. Enter your responses to the Language Skills Assessment Check on the application form;
3. Pay a $35 non-refundable application fee when submitting the application form.

For more information about the application process and links to the application form, please visit the website below.

How much does this course cost? The fee for this course is $575. (This total includes the $35 non-refundable application fee, but does not include the cost of course materials which must be purchased separately.)

Early-bird discount: If you complete the application process, are accepted into the course, complete the registration form, and pay your course fees by the early-bird discount deadline, you will receive a $100 discount on the course fee. The discounted course fee is $475. (This total includes the $35 non-refundable application fee, but does not include the cost of course materials.)

Please visit www.sph.unc.edu/oce/spanish for more information.