CONTENTS

Introduction to the Second Edition xi

1. Being and Courage 1

   Courage and Fortitude: From Plato to Thomas 2

   Aquinas 2

   Courage and Wisdom: The Stoics 9

   Courage and Self-affirmation: Spinoza 18

   Courage and Life: Nietzsche 24

2. Being, Nonbeing, and Anxiety 32

   An Ontology of Anxiety 32

   The meaning of nonbeing 32

   The interdependence of fear and anxiety 36

   Types of Anxiety 40

   The three types of anxiety and the nature of man 40

   The anxiety of fate and death 42

   The anxiety of emptiness and meaninglessness 46

   The anxiety of guilt and condemnation 51

   The meaning of despair 54

   Periods of Anxiety 57

3. Pathological Anxiety, Vitality, and Courage 64
The Courage to Be

The Nature of Pathological Anxiety 64
Anxiety, Religion, and Medicine 70
Vitality and Courage 78

4. Courage and Participation (The Courage to Be as a Part) 86
Being, Individualization, and Participation 86
Collectivist and Semicollectivist Manifestations of the Courage to Be as a Part 90
Neocollectivist Manifestations of the Courage to Be as a Part 96
The Courage to Be as a Part in Democratic Conformism 103

5. Courage and Individualization (The Courage to Be as Oneself) 113
The Rise of Modern Individualism and the Courage to Be as Oneself 113
The Romantic and Naturalistic Forms of the Courage to Be as Oneself 116
Existentialist Forms of the Courage to Be as Oneself 123
The existential attitude and Existentialism 123
The existentialist point of view 126
The loss of the existentialist point of view 131
Existentialism as revolt 135
Existentialism Today and the Courage of Despair 139
Contents

Courage and despair 139
The courage of despair in contemporary art and literature 142
The courage of despair in contemporary philosophy 148
The courage of despair in the noncreative Existentialist attitude 150
The limits of the courage to be as oneself 151

6. Courage and Transcendence (The Courage to Accept Acceptance) 155

The Power of Being as Source of the Courage to Be 156
The mystical experience and the courage to be 156
The divine-human encounter and the courage to be 160
Guilt and the courage to accept acceptance 163
Fate and the courage to accept acceptance 167
Absolute faith and the courage to be 171

The Courage to Be as the Key to Being-itself 178
Nonbeing opening up being 178
Theism transcended 182
The God above God and the courage to be 186

Index 191